Some Frequently Asked Questions

What type of courses do you offer?

We teach our students to perform the most frequently demanded repairs in the high-volume jewelry, watch, and clock repair industries.

Do I need prior experience to enroll?

Our courses do not require previous experience. All the tools and technical knowledge needed are included to give each student a firm understanding of the area covered in his or her studies.

What is included in my tuition?

Every course comes with an instructional DVD, a text supplement, a toolkit, and all the materials needed to complete the projects.

What else will I need to pay for?

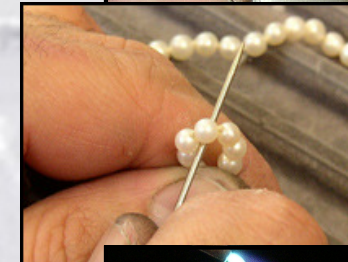

Because of postal restrictions, you will need to buy a few inexpensive items for the Beginning & Intermediate Jewelry Repair and Clock Repair courses. Domestic students will be responsible for shipment of projects back to us for grading. International students will be responsible for paying all shipping fees, which will be quoted individually in the Payment Plan Agreement based on current postal rates. Finally, a non-refundable $50 application fee is required for every course.

What if I need help?

If you find yourself having trouble with a project, we are just a phone call or email away to provide fast, professional advice. Excellent student support is our commitment, and we respond to all inquiries within 48 hours. Our phone lines are open 7 days a week, and we provide troubleshooting and advice even after you complete one of our courses!
